

ARRESTED.

Hon. Sam C. Miller and His Brother Jake.

THEY ARE THROWN INTO BANKRUPTCY.

Heavy Rainfall for the Past Forty-Eight Hours.

Special Dispatch To Herald.

PRESCOTT, March 1st.—Great excitement here in financial circles in consequence of the failure of the Miller Brothers. They are charged with endeavoring to put property out of their hands with intent to defraud creditors. Much of their business seems to have been transacted in a very loose way.

PRESCOTT, March 2d.—By an action of the principal creditors the Millers were thrown into bankruptcy yesterday. The two brothers are under arrest and developments important to the creditors are looked for when the legal investigation takes place.

There has been a great rainfall during the past forty-eight hours in this region, the showers having been almost continuous during that time.

MORE SALT.

Special Dispatches to the Herald.

YUMA, March 2d.—Twelve thousand pounds of salt left here on the 20th; arrive in Phoenix March 6th. This is the first of a thirty ton shipment for the Tip Top Mining Company. The remainder will be forwarded as soon as possible. It is consigned to E. Irvine & Co.

TUCSON, March 2d.—One hundred and eight sacks of salt—17280 pounds—left here on the 26th for Tip Top mill.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

.... Colonel Woolsey has gone to Yuma.

.... It costs $10 to get drunk in this town.

.... Irvine has the best of boots and shoes at the Variety store.

.... Mrs. Lewis Rodgers, one of the pioneer ladies of this Territory, is dangerously ill.

.... Twenty-five flasks quicksilver for the Tip Top mill are on the road from Yuma.

.... Miss Clara Isaac, who has been very sick with pleuro-pneumonia, is now recovering.

.... Dr. J. E. Wharton, of this town, has been appointed U. S. medical examiner for pensions.

.... Parents don't forget Mrs. L. A. Sheets' juvenile school which opens next Monday.

.... C. T. Hayden visited Phoenix yesterday. He reports no appreciable rise in Salt River.

.... Major Veil is at Prescott on business. We are told that his mill will start up again on his return.

.... That new stock of fruit and confectionery at A. M. Janes, is attractive and tasteful.

.... Mr. Caldwell of San Luis Obispo, Cal., has abandoned his Phoenix newspaper enterprise.

.... John Knauss & Co. have opened a very neat and cleanly kept meat market in the building lately occupied by Judge Oury.

.... More and richer discoveries are being made in Cave creek district. Verily the mines of Maricopa county are second to none in the Territory.

.... Charlie Goldman arrived from Prescott by private conveyance yesterday morning. He brought all his money with him and intends to settle with us.

.... Dr. Sheets and family have chosen Phoenix for their home and greatly prefer it to the deep snows and chilling blasts of Nevada. The doctor is an experienced practitioner of the regular school and deserves a liberal share of patronage.

.... Mrs. A. M. Janes' class in vocal music will meet at the court room on Tuesday and Friday evening. Terms, two dollars for twelve lessons. Instruction given upon the organ at her residence at six dollars a month, embracing two lessons a week.

.... Mrs. L. A. Sheets' private school commences next Monday, March 4th, at the school house. Tuition, single scholars $3 per month, two or more from one family $2 50.

.... A Goldman leaves for San Francisco on Monday, where he goes to lay in an immense stock for the rapidly increasing business of Phoenix and its adjacent mining districts.

.... The law firm of Hicks & Cox show their card in this issue. The firm is well recommended. They will give their united attention to all cases entrusted them in the different courts of the Territory.

GO TO GOLDMAN'S.

If you're running out of crop, And you're credit did not stop, Go to Goldman's.

If you prospect in the hills, Need some powder, fuse or drills, Go to Goldman's.

If you want some farming tools, Or some shoes for horses, mules, Go to Goldman's.

If your girl does not admire, The style of your attire, Go to Goldman's.

If the smallpox takes you in, And you need good medicine, Go to Goldman's.

If you want to go to church, And "John" left you in the lurch, Go to Goldman's.

If you're preaching temperance, And need some sarsaparil essence, Go to Goldman's.

If there's anything in fact By my readers lacked, From an anchor to a pin, Remember my doctrine—

Go to GOLDMAN'S.

TIP TOP.

More Fresh Items From This Big Bonanza.

The main incline of the Tip Top mine is 300 feet deep, and in ore the entire depth. The vein is 16 inches wide for the first 100 feet, where it widens to 30 inches; it will all mill $300.... The company own the following mines: Pearl, Taurus, Aldebaran, Boula, Foy and Tip Top, north and south.... Since purchasing these valuable mining properties the company has sunk, drilled and tunneled 1850 feet.... Since 21st the ore is being conveyed from the ore schutes to the mill, a distance of four miles, with ox teams, of a capacity of five tons each per day; back actions have been purchased in Phoenix, which will give a teaming capacity of 18 tons.... The mill commenced crushing ore for the first time on the evening of the 23d.... The mill was turned over to C. E. Hoffman, general superintendent of the company, by White & Allen, contractors, on the 25th ult.... Messrs. Keating & Wright will start a saloon at the mine upon the completion of their new building.... Mr. Roshon is putting up an adobe building at the mine, size, 20x30.... Messrs. Bostwick & Willis, who keep the pioneer saloon at the mine, are putting up a stone building.... The Miner states that letters and papers go much quicker and in a far more reliable manner from Prescott to the Tip Top by way of Phoenix than by the buckboard direct from Prescott.

.... Good Rio coffee, three pounds for a dollar, at Irvine's.

.... Asher & Wollenburg, of the White House, Prescott, will establish a large store in Phoenix in a few weeks. They will discontinue the Prescott store.

Mr. M. Edwards Lezynsky, cousin of Henry Lezynsky who owns some rich copper mines in Clifton district, is in our town en route to the mines.

A. H. Sloan, foreman for White & Allen, mill builders, was in Phoenix the early part of the week, en route to San Francisco. He left on Thursday morning in private conveyance by way of Maricopa Wells.

.... Trees are all in spring dress fruit blossoms are blooming and the weather is warm and balmy. How is that for comfort, you poor benighted dwellers in the mountain cities?

.... "All day the low-lung clouds dropped their garnered fullness down." This was on Thursday and the rancheros smile thereat while the irrigators take a rest and seek fortune at the peril of monte banks.

.... "Jack" Walters, the model farmer, presented us yesterday a mammoth sweet potato just exhumed from its parent bed on his ranch. That's the way they do things in this pleasant valley while the hill country is all frozen up.

.... Mrs. Cramer, residing six miles below Phoenix, is nearly well of the smallpox. Sam Moore with the same disease, about one mile from town, is progressing favorably. The same may be said of our fellow-townsmen Mr. Childs, who is at his residence in town. The two last named caught the disease at Yuma.

.... Our boys and girls extemporized a very pleasant hop on Wednesday evening last. It was a cheery farewell to Mr. Charles H. Allabach, the U. S. printer at Fort Whipple, who has been rusticated in Phoenix for the past month, and who left by Thursday's stage. The dancing was kept up until midnight, and the boys had a lively time escorting the ladies home in the darkness of a heavy rain storm.

.... Go to Irvine's and get ten yards of print for one dollar.

.... A. M. Janes has 2,000 pear, peach, quince, apricot, plum, apple and other trees to arrive by Dennis' train.

.... Palmers teams pulled out the fore part of the week bound to Prescott with four tons of flour for Ellis & Co.

.... Minors! Go to Irvine's for steel, picks, shovels, powder, fuse, clothing and other articles, needed by a prospector, at reasonable rates.

.... An organization of the Masonic, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias is in contemplation, and will be effected as soon as the new hall now building shall be completed.

.... Mr. Valentine, General Superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co. arrived Thursday by private conveyance from Florence in company with Mr. Thomas. We are assured by George E. Loring, the agent in Phoenix, that his office will be second to none in the Territory, owing to the bullion shipments and increased business of the Tip Top, which is all being transacted through Phoenix.
